

Table with multiple columns containing financial data, including company names, fund types, and amounts. The table is organized in a grid format with 10 columns per page.