

Table with multiple columns containing financial data, including company names, product names, and numerical values. The table is organized in a grid format with 32 columns.